The Leisure Pass is Ealing's discount card that offers a wide range of discounts on activities at leisure facilities across the borough.

Who qualifies for a Leisure Pass?

You qualify for a Leisure Pass (and you can enjoy discounts on leisure activities) if you fall into one of the categories shown below and live in the borough of Ealing (not applicable to the Senior Citizen category).

You will need to provide proof that you qualify. Please see below for types of proof required, any documents that you show must be dated within the last year.

All documents will be returned to you. No Leisure Passes will be issued without documentary proof of eligibility.

Categories:

Senior citizen (any person aged 60 plus)

Bring either your Freedom pass, passport or birth certificate.

People receiving job Seekers Allowance

(Six month pass only) - Please bring your Job Centre Plus letter, plus additional* proof that you live within the borough.

People receiving disability / disablement

Allowances - Bring either a letter from DWP stating your allowance or your disability Freedom Pass plus additional* proof that you live within the borough.

People receiving Income Support, Incapacity Benefit, or Employment and Support Allowance

- Bring a relevant letter from the DWP or Job Centre Plus, stating your allowances plus additional* proof that you live within the borough.
